

STORM OF STORIES PROGRAMME 2012

Friday 26 October

SEA TONGUE

After a series of workshops with poet Dean Parkin, dancer Anusha Subramanyam and musician RR Prathap students from Alde Valley School, Leiston, perform their version of Sea Tongue, a local story adapted by Kevin Crossley-Holland.

Children from Aldeburgh Primary School perform Orlando (The Marmalade Cat) A Seaside Holiday.

Aldeburgh Jubilee Hall

Saturday 27 October

POP UP WRITING CLINIC

Writers Caroline Moorehead and Claude Harz offer writing advice on poetry, film scripts, novels, non-fiction, journalism, plays and stories.

Aldeburgh Library

THE RAINBOW FISH

THE LITTLEST ROCK

Zoe Palmer and musician Jack Ross delight children with their stories and songs.

Leiston Library

Also at Aldeburgh Library – Sunday 28 October

STRANGE FISH by Wonderful Beast

Four stories performed by Ann Firbank, Sasha Mitchell, Matt Prendergast, baritone - Mikhail Pavlov, dancer- Anusha Subramanyam, musicians - Sylvia Hallett, Jack Ross, Miguel Tantos, director- Alys Kihl

Aldeburgh Jubilee Hall,

TRAWLING FOR TALES

Children, local residents, writers and actors read extracts from their favourite stories, Aldeburgh Bookshop

CONCERT OF STORIES

Abbi Patrix from France and percussionist Linda Edsjö, create a magical atmosphere drawing from the world's great tales.

Aldeburgh Jubilee Hall

MESSAGES FROM THE MARSHES

Interactive exhibition and installation devised by Tallulah Brown and Hermione Pilkington
Also on Sunday 28 and Monday 29 October,

Aldeburgh Pump House

Sunday 28 October

MEMORIES OF MERMAIDS

Performer Kerri McLean brings to life a modern day tale influenced by Caribbean folk tales with live music by Jack Ross and Zoe Palmer.
Aldeburgh Pump House,

LIFE STORIES

Local people reminisce about life and times in Aldeburgh and the area,
Aldeburgh Community Centre

THE ADVENTURES OF PRINCE ACHMED

Classic film made by Lotte Reiniger in 1928.
Aldeburgh Cinema