

STORM OF STORIES PROGRAMME 2014

Friday 28 March (premiere)

Saturday 29 March (two performances)

THE SIX SWANS

A community opera by Richard Chew, libretto by Jehane Markham, based on the story by the Grimm brothers.

Leiston Abbey (in partnership with Pro Corda)

Sunday 30 March

GATHERING STORIES

Writers, Caroline Moorhead and Julia Blackburn, in discussion with Gill Lowe

Thorpeness Country Club

Monday 31 March

IN THE DARK DARK WOODS

Storytelling and music for the very young, devised and performed by Zoe Palmer and Jack Ross
Framlingham Library and Aldeburgh Primary School.

Also

Leiston Library - Saturday 5 April

Aldeburgh Library - Sunday 6 April

Wednesday 2 April

TREE TALES

Actability Inclusive Theatre Company – workshops and interactive performances by artists with learning disabilities.

Leiston Primary School

TALES FROM THE KEY

The Seal of the Sea, The Lovers of the Broad and The Devil's Daughter

told by Paul Jackson

The Golden Key, Snape

Thursday 3 April

FORAGING FOR FABLES

Local people of all ages read from their favourite childhood stories.

Aldeburgh Bookshop

Friday 4 April

LIFE STORIES

Reminiscences by local residents Pam Goodchild, Dudley Fryer, Tony Heffer

Aldeburgh Church Hall

Saturday 5 April

TUUP THE STORY SPINNER

TUUP tells the stories of Ammacoso and The Star Maiden.

Aldeburgh Jubilee Hall

THE EPIC JUKE BOX by Pandvani 108

Performance storytelling for adults and teenagers by Laura Burns, Ben Haggarty, Dominic Kelly, Mikael Öberg, Emily Parrish and TUUP.

Aldeburgh Jubilee Hall

THE OLD WOOD

Art exhibition by Aldeburgh Primary school with art workshops led by Heather Hodgson and Jennifer Hall.

Also on Sunday 6 April

Aldeburgh Pump House

POP UP SOUP KITCHEN

Also on Sunday 6 April

Aldeburgh Pump House

Sunday 6 April

TALES FROM THE FOREST – The Forest of Possibility

Ben Haggarty tells a tale about the birth of a major figure in British folklore...

The Pump House Aldeburgh

THE JUNGLE BOOK

Newly restored digital version of the Disney family classic.

Aldeburgh Cinema